I. HISTORY & BACKGROUND OF THE WOODSEGE MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP FUND

The WE Memorial Scholarship Fund is a Christian scholarship set up in 2001 in honor of Hollis D. Marshall, a former member of WoodsEdge Community Church. Hollis Marshall was a renowned geologist, "oil finder," loving husband and father, and also a proud Aggie. To honor him, the Hollis Marshall Memorial Scholarship Fund now called (WoodsEdge Memorial Scholarship Fund) was set up by his wife, Judy Marshall. This scholarship is awarded annually to individuals pursuing higher academic achievement, and it will provide assistance to select individuals with the same "ideals of excellence and the desire to give back to their communities" in both U.S. and/or internationally. The scholarship is a one-time $1000 gift to selected individuals who meet the eligibility criteria and the money is sent to the university of higher learning of the student's choice with their name and their college admittance student ID number.

Originally Judy Marshall raised monies for this fund by cycling across the US twice in 2003 & 2006. She would ask WE members, friends and family to support her cause as she cycled the 3415 miles from LA to Boston knowing that all the proceeds raised would go into the memorial scholarship fund to help students in need. Additionally, Judy also cycled the
